MS, LMT, CIMI®

Diana is the founder and director of the International Loving Touch Foundation (ILTF) in Portland, Oregon, USA. (formed in 1992) She has been an active Licensed Massage Therapist since 1974 and a member of the American Massage Therapy Association for over 40 years. Her education includes a Master of Science in Management and Entrepreneurship from Marylhurst University with an undergraduate degree in Health Education and Sports Medicine from Portland State University. Diana completed a Post Baccalaureate Certificate in Infant Toddler Mental Health: A Relationship-Based Approach, from Portland State University, in 2006.

A visionary and pioneer in the global parenting tradition of infant massage, she began researching the use and practice in the mid-seventies. She envisioned and developed The Loving Touch® Method© to instruct families and healthcare professionals in the Loving Touch® Parent-Infant Massage Program. The Certified Infant Massage Instructor Program CIMI® is the foundational program for certifying healthcare professionals in the art of infant massage.

Amongst her worldwide travels, she led eight teaching teams of healthcare professionals with Medical Teams International to Romania from 1995 - 2004. The mission provided medical support and helped the plight of the Romanian orphans. She and her team certified healthcare providers in the Loving Touch® Parent-Infant Massage Program.

Diana is passionate about her work and continues to actively conduct training across the United States and internationally in hospitals, educational and healthcare-related organizations to inspire and promote positive parent interactions through loving touch.
